some of Maine's most desirable locations,” said Loni Graiver, CEO of Graiver Homes Construction. “North Yarmouth offers a unique blend of community and convenience, and we're excited to bring new housing opportunities to the area.”

Graiver Homes Construction has completed over 1,100 homes since its founding, leveraging its unique ability to self-finance and develop lots without requiring construction loans from buyers. This efficient model has helped the company streamline the building process, pass savings on to customers while optimizing profits, and maintain its position as a top-tier builder in the region.

The company anticipates breaking ground on the North Yarmouth lots in the third quarter of 2025, with home sales projected to begin shortly thereafter.
